WCA St. Patrick's parade 'bigger than ever'

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

The Waveland Civic Association welcomed a record crowd on Saturday for its 58th annual St. Patrick's Day Parade.

"Despite that cold weather and wind on Saturday, I think we did really good," WCA President AJ Andres said. "It was a record turn-out for us — it just seems to be getting bigger and bigger every year. I just think everybody's over COVID and wanting to get back to a little normalcy and doing more family-type stuff."

The grand marshal for this year's parade was multi-hyphenate business owner Carlos Estrella. The Colleen for Saturday's parade was Kylee Adams. Kyleigh Johnson served as the 2022 Little Miss Leprechaun, and Gus Monju was the 2022 Little Mr. Leprechaun.

Andres said that not only the spectator turnout was bigger than ever this year, so was the actual number of parade participants, with double the number of maids from previous years.

"Everything just keeps growing," Andres said. "This year we had the ball and the parade, and it's been since 2019 since we've had them both. ... We're moving forward, and our mem-

State Health Officer Resigns His Position

SEA COAST ECHO

Last week, the Mississippi State Department of Health (MSDH) announces that State Health Officer Thomas Dobbs, MD, MPH, will resign from his position at the end of July 2022.

Dobbs began his career at MSDH in 2008, and has held numerous roles including District Health Officer, State Epidemiologist, and Deputy State Health Officer.

His passion has always been infectious disease treatment, and he has served in various roles related to that field, such as medical director for the AIDS Healthcare Foundation, clinical consultant for the Southeastern National TB Center, and infectious disease consultant for several hospitals throughout Mississippi.

"I feel like the time is right for me to return to the clinical side of medicine, particularly the communicable disease treatment of patients," said Dobbs. "I have thoroughly enjoyed my time at MSDH, particularly working with this dedicated health staff and advancing the field of health equity in Mississippi."

Dobbs said he also would like to step back into the academic world. He has held numerous faculty positions at colleges and universities throughout the Southeast, including at the University of Mississippi Medical Center, and he would love to teach and train healthcare professionals about public health and infectious disease.

Minor's family sues DH councilman over alleged assault

ECHO STAFF

A Hancock County family on Monday filed a lawsuit in Hancock Circuit Court against Diamondhead City Councilman Alan Moran, accusing him of "harmful, offensive contact," with their 17-year-old son.

The suit, filed by attorney David Baria on behalf of the family, also names Philip's Pest Control Co., LLC, and A&M Spray Foam Insulation, LLC, as defendants in the suit, both of which Moran serves in a managerial capacity.

Moran was arrested on Feb. 14 on one count of simple assault — causing bodily injury; and one count of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The alleged victim's family detained Moran for sheriff's deputies at Dolly's Quick Stop in Kiln.

According to the suit, on Feb. 14, the minor — referred to in the action as "John Doe" — received a Snapchat message from Moran on

Bay Rotary & Interact Cub project helps CASA kids

Members of the Rotary Club of Bay St. Louis and the club's Interact — which involves local high school students — volunteered their time on Friday to visit the Hancock County Youth Court offices and prepare special bags for children involved in the court system.

GENERAL MANAGER

Members of the Rotary Club of Bay St. Louis and its Interact Club turned out in force at the new Hancock County Youth Court office on Friday to pack special bags that will be given to foster children.

The bags are part of a CASA of Hancock County program — they will be handed to children when they appear in court, and include information on the court system and Remi, the courthouse facility dog.

“We are appreciative to the Rotary Club and the Interact Club of Bay St. Louis for supporting Remi and the courthouse facility dog project,” CASA Executive Director Cynthia Chauvin said. “Together we are making abused and neglected children feel more safe and the court process more humane.”

Hancock Judge Trent Favre said Friday he truly appreciate the efforts of the Rotary Club of Bay St. Louis and the Interact Club, which have helped the Youth Court staff set up their new facilities to make them more child-friendly.

“We just moved into this new courtroom in December (from the one in Old Town Bay St. Louis),” Favre said. We’ve taken all the artwork from the old courthouse and placed it here” and “we have a corner that has been designed for our children. We have a book program for the kids, and we want a designated corner for Remi,” which Rotary is helping set up.

CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) of Hancock County works with children in the child welfare system who have already experienced abuse or neglect. CASA advocates meet with children in person at least monthly and provide information to judges that helps them make the most well-informed decisions about each child.

Remi the courthouse facility dog, handled by Victim Service Coordinator Naomi Strawhorn, is specially trained to help the children feel more at ease through the process. Strawhorn and Remi first started working with CASA of Hancock County in 2020.

Chauvin has previously said that Remi offers “a calming presence and an extra layer of support to child victims who find themselves involved in Hancock County’s child welfare system.”

Jim “BOA” Olander: Icon in the Music Industry

BY VIRGINIA OLANDER

How do you capture a life filled with adventure, skill, generosity and love? Jim “Boa” Olander, CTS, of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, passed away Mardi Gras day, Tuesday, March 1, 2022, at the age of 67 with the love of his life, soulmate and best friend, Virginia, by his side. He was a wonderful and loving husband, father, grandfather, and lifelong friend to many. His journey in the music industry is an example of passion, love and purpose.

Boa was born in Albany, New York, February 1, 1955. He played baseball and football in high school with the number “55” on his jersey, his lucky number. He attended college, but being a music lover and bass player, he instead focused on his dream to be an Audio Engineer. He honed his skills as an Audio Engineer receiving a Certificate in Audio Engineering from SUNY, Fredonia. Subsequently, his amazing intuition told him to live in New Orleans. Growing up, he inherited the “Olander” humor. Boa’s infectious smile and sunny disposition were his trademarks.

His journey included working at the New York Telephone Company in Albany and doing sound for local bands. In 1981, he packed his bags and moved to New Orleans without knowing one person in the Big Easy. Shortly after arriving, he met Gary Edwards, an iconic figure, mover and shaker in the New Orleans music scene who sadly passed away last September. Gary saw promise in Boa and hired him to help with his music business including providing gear to the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival in 1983. The rest is history.

About this time, he met his oldest New Orleans friends, Tague & Mary Richardson. Tague is the Site Director for Jazz Fest. They shared the same apartment building on Camp St. in the early 80’s. Tague & Boa worked together at Jazz Fest for decades.

Boa will be sorely missed by his Jazz Fest Family in New Orleans. Boa continued his passion for festivals and music for Festival Productions until his death. His greatest joy was working in the Music Production Department of Jazz Fest with his Jazz Fest Family. Working in concert with Home Team Productions, he helped create “Special Phorces” in the 80’s. Under his leadership, his crew provided backline and trouble shooting for all stages at Jazz Fest. Boa also worked other festivals for Festival Productions in Philadelphia and Daytona Beach. Working for Festival Productions, he managed stages for two presidential inaugural celebrations in Washington, DC

In 1984, he was the Audio Supervisor for the 1984 Louisiana World Exposition in New Orleans. During the World’s Fair, he forged a friendship with musician and close friend, Gregory

Davis, who founded the famous Dirty Dozen Brass Band. In the late 1980s, he returned to Albany, NY, and worked at the Starlite Theater and Albany Theatre Supply all the while continuing to return each year to work at Jazz Fest in the city he dearly loved, New Orleans.

In 1994, Boa met Virginia, a classical musician. Their first date was to Tipitina’s and they danced through life together. Their combined love of all music graced their lives every day. Common ground was anything by the Beatles who they grew-up listening to before meeting. As a matter of fact, George Porter Jr., Boa to pick-up the engagement ring. Jim Boa proposed to Virginia at the Jazz Fest office on Royal Street.

According to all who know them, their marriage is a love story for the ages. Before returning home to New Orleans in 1994, Boa worked the summer music event, “Lincoln Center Out-of-Doors Festival” in New York City. Finally, reaching his New Orleans home, he continued his work for Festival Productions at Jazz Fest and added the Essence Music Festival at the Superdome in 1995 while assisting Pace Systems for event productions. At the request of Quint Davis, he also enjoyed his contribution producing live music at the Storyville Jazz Club in the French Quarter.

He was beloved by musicians and the stage crews alike throughout his career covering 40 years. Consequently, when Boa was spotted on a stage, everyone knew they were in good hands. Boa always lived by the words he borrowed from John Lennon: “There are no problems, only solutions.”

In 1999, Harrah’s New Orleans Casino came calling because they needed someone to manage the Audio/Visual arm and event productions at their new casino. At Harrah’s, Boa hired, trained and mentored a great team to run the A/V and special events at Harrah’s. During his time at Harrah’s, he studied for the national certification for CTS (Certified Technical Specialist), flew to Las Vegas for the exam, and passed on first try. In 2001, Harrah’s awarded him the HERO of the year award (Harrah’s Employees Reaching Out) for volunteering in the New Orleans area for those who needed a helping hand. Out of the many musicians Boa supported and produced at Harrah’s, the Earl Turner Show and Allen Toussaint’s 75th birthday celebration “A Tribute to Toussaint” at Harrah’s showroom were the highlights of his time at Harrah’s adding to his contributions to the music industry.

Due to his experience and knowledge in the entertainment world, Harrah’s sent him to other Harrah’s properties to evaluate the A/V and sound systems to advise the company for future improvements. His right-hand man and friend, Fred Martinez, along with his extended Harrah’s family, continues to fill Boa’s shoes at the foot of Canal Street. After receiving great respect and success at Harrah’s for 15 years, he retired from Harrah’s on their 15th anniversary celebration with fireworks filling the New Orleans sky.

In 2015, Boa and Virginia retired and moved to Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, to enjoy the fruits of their labors and spend every minute together. Every day was an adventure, Boa made sure of it. Living in old town Bay St. Louis, they embraced everything about Bay St. Louis and made new friends. Boa loved to fish and especially enjoyed going out on the St. Louis Bay with his buddy, Mat. Blanche & Mat Gray live in Pass Christian and have been family to Boa and Virginia for decades.

Their Bay St. Louis family include neighbors Jim & Patty Keating, Jackie Kidd, Markey, Nicolette Murphy, Mary Beth Van Pelt, Liz Maio, James & Patricia, and Michelle & Danny Ball to name a few. On a regular basis, they prayed together, cooked and ate at home, road their bikes along the beach, played bridge, and played golf with Boa’s golf buddy, Jim Keating. Throughout their marriage, they traveled far and wide enjoying their road trips to the max. To celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary in 2020, they embarked on a Louisiana Purchase adventure covering 5,000 miles using the boundaries of the Louisiana Purchase as their map. On their honeymoon, Boa earned a surfing certificate and on their Louisiana Purchase trip, they both took Falconry.

Boa decided to try his hand at gardening and succeeded planting many vegetables they enjoyed from his garden to their table. He was an avid reader and life-long learner.

Every Friday was “Rock ‘n Roll Friday.” He could be seen working in the gardens and yard with music blaring from his garage. Their neighbors in Bay St. Louis called Boa “The Happy Husband!” He continued to commute to Jazz Fest after moving to Bay St. Louis because his Jazz Fest Family was so important to him.

Their home is warm, comfortable and beautiful thanks to Boa who painted it inside and out. The porch is a sanctuary where they enjoyed watching birds feed on

You matter

“Do ordinary things with extraordinary love.”
-Mother Teresa

I wrote this staff column for several reasons. One of those reasons was to thank a kind, compassionate person for a simple but nonetheless thoughtful and inspiring act of love. Today, I received a subscription renewal from an individual who shall remain nameless because I respect their privacy. Inside the envelope was the subscription renewal stub, a check for the amount and something else, a small red card with the words “YOU MATTER.”

I received this same card from the subscriber last year when they renewed their subscription and I have the card displayed at my accounting desk. Every time I sit down at the desk, I see that card and I am reminded that, indeed, I do matter. You see, I have bipolar disorder and oftentimes, it’s very hard to think I have any self-worth at all. I often feel like I don’t matter in this world.

I have good days and then I have really bad days. On those bad days, I frequently think irrational thoughts about my value to myself and other people. It’s a heavy and very personal topic, I know, and thoughts like this come with the territory of having this awful brain disorder. Thankfully, it is treatable with therapy and medication which can decrease the severity and frequency of these thoughts. At the same time, I need those reminders that I am loved, appreciated and needed in the lives of others.

I know having this card won’t magically make my disorder go away, but it certainly makes me feel feelings I wouldn’t have felt without it. This person I don’t know who sent this message is like having my own secret cheerleader encouraging me and not even knowing my name or anything about me.

Since I have this card already, I intend to share it with someone I know who needs this reminder, as well. I wish to spread the message to everyone, just as I am sure this person who sends these cards to complete strangers wishes to do. I imagine this person sends these cards with every piece of mail they send out.

If that’s the case, they are doing humanity a tremendous service. We all need to be reminded that we do matter in the grand scheme of things

Hancock History: From the Cotton Belt to the Sunbelt Part II

HANCOCK HISTORY
by James Keating
M.D.

In 1990 the Mississippi Legislature passed the Mississippi Gaming Control Act to boost the state economy. Consequently, Marlin Torguson moved to Hancock County and opened a casino on a barge docked at Bay Cove near the mouth of the Jourdan River in Bay St. Louis called “Casino Magic” in 1992. A second casino, “Bayou Caddy’s Jubilee Casino”, operated from 1994 to 1995. Later, in 2005, John Ferrucci, as General Manager, organized the “Silver Slipper Casino” at Bayou Caddy. The gaming industry was a catalyst igniting a visible economic boom during the 1990’s. Casinos stimulated increased population in the Kiln and Diamondhead, and rejuvenation of the building and construction sectors. The population of Hancock County increased from 31,765 in 1990 to 43,232 in 2000.

Hurricane Katrina hit Hancock County on August 29, 2005. Bay St. Louis, Waveland, and Diamondhead suffered flooding and destruction. Nevertheless, the county recovered by 2015, thanks to the massive FEMA and other federal assistance estimated to be as much as $5B. The seawall was rebuilt, Beach Boulevard was restored, and a new bridge ($267M) was constructed across the Bay. Water, sewerage, and storm drainage infrastructure were replaced. A municipal harbor/marina was added as a final touch to this remarkable recovery called along the coast the “Mississippi Renaissance.” Ultimately, some observers thought after fifteen years the Gulf Coast came back stronger than it was before. A real estate agent, Stephen Crawford, commented that “Because of its charm-the art galleries, cafes, white picket fences and access to nearby Bay St. Louis, downtown property in Bay St. Louis never really experienced a post Katrina nosedive.”

The period of time from 2005 to 2022 is considered stage four of the evolution of Hancock County and the South, captured in the phrase “from the cotton belt to the sunbelt.” Although Hancock County experienced transient inconveniences from the ‘Great Recession, the BP oil spill, and the Covid-19 pandemic, its economy and population showed steady growth and prosperity.

An important aspect of this period was the bonus to the economy and the life styles of Hancock County citizens of IT (Information Technology). This “quaternary sector” of the economy involves all industries concerned with the creation of knowledge and use of computers for such chores as building communication networks, databases, and practical problem-solving for businesses. The computer, the I-phone, semiconductor chips, bank ATM’s (Automatic Transfer Machine) and mobile banking are only a few of the everyday advances Hancock County citizens enjoy and now take for granted. Because IT is a special type of “service” sector of the economy, it deserves consideration as a category by itself. IT has made the various industries and businesses in the traditional sectors more efficient and more profitable. It is the defining factor of the period from 2005 to 2022. As of 2020, the population of Hancock County has grown to 47,632 and its GRP is $1.5 B compared to an estimated GRP in 1950 of $30 M.

MS House Weekly Summary - Week of March 7

This was the tenth week of the 2022 Legislative Session. Wednesday was the deadline for the House to discuss general Senate bills. Any Senate bills that did not make it off the calendar and before the House died. The deadline to discuss Senate appropriations and revenue bills will occur next Tuesday, March 15. More than 120 Senate bills were discussed on the floor.

The calendar also included several House bills that were passed earlier in the session, sent to the Senate and are now back before the House. With this process, the representatives will vote on whether to agree with the changes the Senate made, or to invite conference for possible further revisions before becoming law or dying. Many House bills have already been sent to conference.

One such bill that came back to the House with changes from the Senate was House Bill 530, or the START Act. The House submitted a conference report to the Senate on Thursday morning. In the $226 million plan, average teacher pay would increase by $4,850 and assistant teachers would get a $2,000 raise. The average starting salary of teachers would increase to $41,638, which is higher than both the regional and national averages. The plan also includes a proposal similar to the Senate’s teacher pay raise (SB 2443), which would provide salary increases of at least $1,000 every five years

• HISTORY

In conclusion, the transition of the economy of the South and Hancock County has been characterized by historian, Bruce J. Schulman, by the phrase “from the cotton belt to the sun belt.” This is the title of his landmark book on the subject. A modern day economy contains four sectors: agrarian, industrial, service, and Information Technology. As our economy matured over the last seventy years, the service sector came to dominate the character of the marketplace of the South and Hancock County, effecting an enormous increase in the GRP. The coastal county of Hancock became a popular beach destination resort and a synergy between large government installations such as the Stennis Space Center, Port Bienville Industrial Park, the Stennis Municipal Airport and the other businesses in the county occurred. This synergy was a catalyst in this marketplace, fueling a steady increase of population, significant investment in infrastructure and continued construction of buildings and houses. The resiliency and future promise of the economy, both in the South and Hancock County, was demonstrated by its recovery from tragic calamities such as the “Great Recession of 2009.’

regardless of our skin color, faith, gender, sexuality, opinions or anything that makes a person a human being. I hope that other people who receive these cards feel the same way I do. Two words never meant so much to me.

To the person who sent this card (you know who you are), thank you from the bottom of my heart for making a difference in my way of thinking and for making me feel that I do matter. Your small act of kindness and compassion had a big impact on me. Every time I look at the card, I’m reminded there are caring people in this world and it’s not just filled with violence, hatred and inhumanity. I can tell by your intentions that you are a good person. I hope others have written you to thank you for their cards. I may not know you personally, but know that you are loved, appreciated and needed, too. You matter.

and $2,500 at 25 years. If approved by the Senate and signed by Governor Reeves, the plan will be implemented in the upcoming school year.

On Tuesday, the House honored Erin and Ben Napier from HGTV’s Home Town with House Resolution 65. Since 2016, the Napiers have been showcasing their home renovation projects around Laurel, which has led to an economic boom in the small Mississippi town. Erin and Ben Napier, joined by Mayor Johnny Magee, were presented with HR 65 by Representative Donnie Scoggin (R – Jones) commending them on their efforts to improve Laurel and Mississippi.

Other visitors at the Capitol this week included the family of World War II veteran Ben Richard Burney, filmmaker Curtis Nichouls, William Carey University’s School of Education, the Pearl River Community College cheer squad, the Meridian High School girls’ basketball team, the CEO and CFO of Girl Scouts of Greater Mississippi, students from Itawamba Community College’s C.O.R.E. Program, representatives from the GRAMMY Museum in Cleveland, the Mississippi Coalition Against Domestic Violence and the Civil Air Patrol of Mississippi.

- MARY HELEN BASS
 - BROTHER RAYMOND SYLVE, S.C

MARY HELEN BASS

To know her is to love her... Mary Helen Bass left her mark on everyone she met. Born March 14, 1977, in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, she was a natural conversationalist, encourager and people believer, who drew an audience wherever she went. She was extremely intellectual and had an insatiable curiosity about our world and people from all walks and talks of life. She loved hearing their stories and always encouraged people to be their true authentic selves, as she always was. She put people at ease with her non-judgmental way of looking at the world and her unrivaled ability to relate to others.

As the many friends she picked up from coast to coast along her life’s journey will attest, Mary Helen was kind, fair and inclusive. She was also very sassy, fun and the life of any party. She was never without that beautiful smile and a cheerful attitude. She had a way of making every person feel as if they were the most special person in the world because she could look deep within them and see their gifts and what made them unique. Mary Helen had a lust for life that was unmatched. She lived her life to the fullest each and every day. She lived big, she loved big and she had big fun.

She was a powerhouse businesswoman as her husband and business partner, Alex Deli, will tell you. He was the love of her life and the two were inseparable from day one. They never missed the chance to tell each other why they loved each other so much every single day. They met when they worked at AT&T in Washington D.C. The couple lived in Dallas and Hattiesburg before settling permanently in Bay St. Louis. Mary Helen always loved the beach, so finally getting to live in the Bay with her cousins and a slew of new friends, was a dream come true.

Mary Helen and Alex co-founded Launch Mississippi, a Mississippi Business Incubator for local innovators to bring their new technologies to market. Previously, Mary Helen served as COO of Spartan Mosquito to bring a game-changing product to market. She also worked at AT&T where she held roles in sales, distribution, ecosystem strategy, and business development. Mary Helen held Bachelor of Science degrees in both Human Resource Management and Marketing from the University of South Carolina where she was a member of Tri Delta sorority. She was a passionate member of many philanthropic and mentoring programs throughout her career.

She was preceded in death by her father, Isaac Houston Bass, III, her dear aunt Myrtle Jane Wingo Haas, and beloved dog Dixie.

Her surviving loved ones are her husband, Alex Deli, and their rambunctious puppies, Lola and Ellie. She is also survived by her mother, Susan Finch Bass, and brothers, Isaac Houston Bass, IV, (wife, Sandy), David Carlton Bass (wife, Marci), and James Carl Bass.

She is survived by her nieces and nephews, Kayla Bass Buchan (husband, Jared Buchan), Cara Bass Schlosser (husband, David Schlosser), Houston Stewart Bass (wife, Adriana), Garrison Riley Bass and Amelie Amira Bass; her godson and great-nephew, Warren Charles Schlosser, and great-niece Olivia Faye Buchan.

Mary Helen never missed the chance to lift people up, fight for what was right, stay grounded and strong but positive and sensitive. She loved with all her heart, and always put others first. May we all use this unbelievable loss as a chance to tell HER story every day to help and encourage others, as she always did.

The family will receive guests from 11:00 am until 1:00 pm Tuesday, March 15, 2022 at Edmond Fahey Funeral Home in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi. A celebration of Mary Helen’s life will follow at 3:00 pm at the Haas Family Home in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, 712 South Beach Blvd. The family welcomes donations to the Our Lady Academy Scholarship Fund.

Edmond Fahey Funeral Home is honored to serve the Bass Family.

BROTHER RAYMOND SYLVE, S.C

Brother Raymond Sylve, S.C., 79, a Brother of the Sacred Heart and a resident of Bay St. Louis, MS, passed into eternal life on Saturday morning, March 12, 2022. Brother Raymond was born on September 4, 1942, in New Orleans, LA, to the late Norris V. Sylve and the late Nolia Anclade. He was preceded in death by two Brothers, Mr. Donald Sylve and Mr. Ronald (Dawn) Sylve, and a sister, Miss Cynthia Sylve, who died when she was six-months old. Brother Raymond is survived by a third brother, Mr. Anthony (Barbara) Sylve of Carriere, MS, and a host of nieces and nephews.

As a pre-novice, young Raymond Sylve entered the formation program for the Brothers of the Sacred Heart as a sophomore in high school on September 7, 1958 at Daphne, AL. He became a novice after graduation on August 4, 1961, as a member of the first novitiate class at the new novitiate created in Belvidere, NJ, and he professed his first vows there on August 15, 1962. Brother Raymond made his perpetual profession in Bay St. Louis, MS, on August 15, 1968.

Brother Raymond taught French and History in 1965 at Saint Stanislaus (SSC) in Bay St. Louis, MS, and then, for another year, 1966, at Catholic Boys Home (CBH) in Mobile, AL. He earned a Bachelor’s degree in French and History from Spring Hill College in Mobile only later, in 1973. It was only after he left the classroom in 1967, however, that Brother Raymond found his niche – as a prefect in the boys’ dormitories, first at CBH and then at SSC. Brother Raymond was especially patient working with the slowest of students and most creative in developing games that would entice even the most homesick students and the reticent non-athletes.

After 24 years as “Head Prefect,” Brother Raymond retired from his lead prefecting duties, but continued to serve the resident students in a supportive role. He would still go the dorm daily – even on weekends – to organize intramural activities, take boarders skiing, and perform light maintenance around the building to keep the dormitory in good working order. It was amazing that even in his final illness a good day was one in which Brother Raymond was able to get to the dorm to do something to “help out.”

During the summer months, Brother Raymond became a legendary, expert ski instructor at Camp Stanislaus, somehow managing to get countless uncoordinated young people – of all ages – up on water skis. No one could accurately estimate the number of individuals Brother Raymond got up on skis for the first time or how many novice and intermediate skiers became more proficient at the sport because of his coaching in his 50+ years on the Jourdan River.

Brother Raymond was a man of prayer, humility, gentleness and inner peace. He shunned the limelight, and preferred to work quietly, consistently and effectively in the background. After a solid day’s work, he always enjoyed being present to his Brothers in community, especially for a feast day meal or special celebration.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church in Bay St. Louis, MS, on Saturday, March 19. A wake will be held in the Church beginning at 1:00 PM. Mass will begin at 2:00 PM. Interment of Brother Raymond’s remains will take place in the Brothers’ cemetery at Saint Stanislaus.

Donations can be made in Brother Raymond’s honor to the Brothers of the Sacred Heart Foundation (4600 Elysian Fields Avenue, New Orleans, LA 70122).

By REV. C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN

What is that in your hand?

C. Gerald Richardson, D. Min.

Through many years and across many challenges there has been one word of advice from parents, teachers, clergy and other leaders that has been consistent. That message has been some version of the call for us to “make the most of our potential”.

Of course, this is, and always has been, good advice.

Whatever accomplishments we have made, or whatever positive hopes we may harbor usually depends on what we do with what we have.

The Old Testament story of the call of Moses from the burning bush provides an obvious example. When the instruction comes for Moses to return to Egypt to free the Hebrew people from their bondage, the first impulse is to try to beg off. He argues that he lacks the skill, he lacks the gift of elegant speech, he lacks the courage. He just plain does not want to do it.

In the face of that reluctance, God raises an important question. He asks, “Moses, what is that in your hand?” It was a simple shepherd’s rod. With that rod God was able to show to Moses that his potential was greater than he thought.

It is likely that the central lesson in this narrative is still applicable for all of us.

What we have in our hands can be the answer to many of the questions and challenges of our lives.

Too often our immediate response to problems is to evaluate what we lack.

What do we need? Where do we fall short?

How are we likely to fail? The real question should be what are our possibilities? What do we possess which can make a difference for good in our lives, and in the lives of those around us?

Discovering our resources and learning to employ them in ways which are beneficial, can be profoundly important in the ultimate outcome of the challenges which confront us.

Spiritual insight and wisdom often provide tools into how we might look for our potential rather than shrink in the face of problems. Reaching for the potential at hand is a spiritual practice.

This is not about institutional loyalty or church doctrine. Those concepts have their place, but they are not relevant here. What is relevant is our capacity to look for what we do have and find ways to use it for good.

What is that in your hand?

Contract awarded for Interstate 10 repairs in Hancock County

SEA COAST ECHO

The Mississippi Department of Transportation (MDOT) on Friday, March 4, awarded an $809,000 contract to Key Constructors, LLC, of Madison, to make repairs to Interstate 10 in Hancock County after a fire caused by a crash damaged the interstate bridge over the Pearl River.

“After the fire, our inspections revealed damage to the bridge. MDOT’s Bridge Division immediately began designing a repair for this heavily traveled route,” said Commissioner Tom King, Southern Transportation District.

“Repairs of this nature take time to design and implement, but MDOT is committed to repairing this bridge as safely and quickly as possible.”

Work will include the removal and replacement of the damaged bridge rail, hydro demolition, and repairs to the beam underneath the bridge. Repairs will begin on the right lane, and once complete traffic will be shifted onto the new right lane so repairs can be made on the left lane.

“We understand drivers’ frustration due to the large volume of traffic on the interstate, but we thank everyone for their patience,” said King. “We ask the traveling public to continue being patient as crews work as quickly and safely as possible to get this bridge repaired.”

Crews have been given approval to work 24/7 to complete this emergency bridge repair. This project is expected to wrap up in early May. The contract includes an incentive for the contractor to complete the work early.

Safety remains MDOT’s top priority. Stay updated on road conditions at MDOTtraffic.com, download the MDOT Traffic mobile app and follow @MississippiDOT on Facebook and Twitter

Shore Thing: One Fly Guy

Shore Thing
Fishing Report
BY CPT. SONNY SCHINDLER

Fly fishermen are their own breed of angler. It is hands down the most challenging way to cast, hook, fight and land a fish. When the weather, angler, and the fish all come together on a fly fishing trip, it is truly something to be seen. Enter J.D. McKeigney, from Jackson MS. He has been fishing with Capt Alex McIngvale for a while now. They both work together to make the most of their trips. Both closely watch the weather, and try to get those picture perfect day. When schedules allow, they have been doing very well on their trips. J.D. has been able to fool snapper, jack crevalle, cobia, king mackerel, black drum, bonito and several other species with his fly rod. Capt Alex and J.D. were fishing around Cat Island a year or so ago, when they got into a school of big speckled trout. They released many many big trout all caught on the fly rods. Anyone who has fished around Cat Island, knows how finicky those trout can be(even with live bait). To spend a day catching and releasing big trout on a fly is worthy of any anglers respect. On another one of their longer offshore runs, they accidentally caught, cleaned and ate a would be State Record trigger fish. Neither Alex or J.D. checked the Website for the current record. It wasn't until a day later when J.D. called Alex to let him know that the cooks at Shaggys in Pass Harbor had turned the would've been record trigger fish into delicious fish tacos. My hat goes off to fly fishermen, all of them. The amount of skill, dedication, persistence and patience required to do it, is admirable. Who knows what the next adventure will bring for these two? Now That Capt Alex has his bigger offshore boat, the possibilities are endless. Keep up the great work J.D., we all look forward to seeing what the future holds for you.

Rocks top Tigers & Jaguars by run rule

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

As the diamond season moves into division play, all area teams are trying to find that groove to help them get an inside track to the top seed for the post season.

BASEBALL

The Saint Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws have run-ruled their last three opponents en route to finding their groove as division play begins. On Monday evening, the Rocks (6-6, 2-0) hosted Jefferson Davis County for a double-header varsity contest ahead of the impending bad weather this week. The Rocks beat the Jaguars 15-0 in three innings followed by a 10-0 victory in Game 2. In Game 1, Brandon Rhides threw just 28 pitches in the victory fanning three batters and allowing just one hit. At the plate, Ethan Jacobi and Hugh LeMasters each had two hits while Seth Farni, Brandon Rhodes, Chesley Rhodes, Tanner Reinike, and Hill Gainey all had one hit. Farni collected three RBIs on a homerun while Brandon Rhodes and Reinike each added three RBIs. In Game 2, the Rocks were led by Farni with two hits and three RBIs including a solo homerun that landed in Commagere Field. Reinike and Gage Rabby also added hits. The Jaguars walked 15 batters to add to the final tally. SSC head coach Brad Corley commented, "It feels really good to start division play at 2-0. We know we will have some tight games coming up. We were able to string some 2-out hits together to help put pressure on them. Our pitchers did a great job of throwing strikes and we were able to play error free. We now prepare for a tough Brandon team at MGM Park this weekend leading into Seminary next week." Last week, SSC topped Bay High 14-0 as Brandon Rhodes picked up the win with four innings pitched and allowing just two hits and fanning eight batters. Ethan Jacobi led the game off with a solo homerun as SSC picked up three runs in the first inning. Reinike added a two-run single to make up the difference. For the Tigers (0-10), Walker Seymour got on base with a walk but was left stranded. LeMasters and Jackson Montjoy got on base for SSC in the second inning and Chesley Rhodes crushed one over the leftfield wall to make the score 8-0. Mikey Castoro got a single to start the second inning for Bay High but the Rocks retired the side leaving him stranded. Rabby led off the third with a single and Brandon Rhodes drove him in to make the score 9-0. In the bottom of the fourth inning, Xander Ladner got a single but was left stranded. Jude Rhode also tallied a hit for the Tigers in the loss. The Rocks brought home six runs in the top of the sixth inning to close out the game. Reinike collected three hits while Farni, Brandon Rhodes, Chesley Rhodes, and Gainey all collected two hits. Bay High head coach BJ Corr stated, "Brandon Rhodes had control of his pitches and kept us off balance all game. We are getting better and progress is coming. I like where we are right now and the effort we have been putting forth. Success is habitual. Right now, we are creating the habits. It will block of Washington Street, Ponthieux said.

“Mr. Lightell fled on foot,” Ponthieux said. “During the arrest, Mr. Lightell was combative and armed with a box cutter. The officer was able to disarm Mr. Lightell and place him into custody.

Officers transported Lightell to the Hancock County Jail, where he was issued an $80,850 bond. However, he was being held without bond for MDOC parole violation, Ponthieux said.

In other action this week, the Bay St. Louis Police Department arrested a Diamondhead man, charging him with Domestic Aggravated Assault.

On Thursday, Ponthieux said, officers arrested Reuben Givens, 46, while responding to a residence on a complaint about a woman “being struck with a mallet while in a vehicle on Washington Street.”

“Officers subsequently located and arrested Givens without incident,” Ponthieux said. Givens was being held at the Hancock County Jail in lieu of a $50,000 bond.

On Thursday, the Bay St. Louis Police Department arrested Breighana Robertson, 29, of Bay St. Louis, and charged her with felony Embezzlement.

On Wednesday, Ponthieux said, “a complaint was received regarding the theft of over $1,000 by an employee of Parrot Head Bar and Grill in Bay St. Louis.”

Robertson was arrested without incident and was being held at the Hancock County Jail on a $10,000 bond.

the bird feeders he built. He always had projects at home and helped friends and neighbors with theirs. He could be seen walking dogs and along the way picked flowers to take home to his “Baby.” Neighbors watched him play with Ben, his grandson, going to the beach, riding in a golf cart or teaching him archery.

Boa and Virginia, being excellent cooks, wrote a cookbook together last year. One more thing: Boa was a collector. Hawaiian shirts, colorful socks for every occasion and beautiful bowties for stepping out. Jim Boa was a rock hound and collected rocks throughout all of their travels using them to surround their gardens he so lovingly cared for.

After moving to the Gulf Coast, they joined the Hancock County Historical Society to learn about the history of Bay St. Louis and Hancock County, Mississippi. Never missing an opportunity to make a difference, Boa & Virginia became active members in the Historical Society with Boa providing sound for events, installing the security system, and hands-on help for whatever needed to be done. In 2020, Boa & Virginia began a 2 year project, producing a 1 hour documentary film on the history of Hancock County that premiered on December 7, 2021, to a full house.

The film, “Connections Matter: An Oral History of the People and Places of Hancock County, Mississippi,” is a lasting legacy for locals and visitors alike to enjoy for years to come.

In conclusion, Boa’s earthly journey always included this model: love hard, work hard, play hard, and give back with a helping hand whenever needed. Nothing he ever did was about him. Jim Boa would want everyone to enjoy life, be happy and take care of one another. Boa is an example of a life well-lived who left this world a better place.

There will be a tribute to Jim Boa at Jazz Fest to celebrate his amazing life.

Chairman Thad Waites, MD, MACC, says the Board has always fully supported Dr. Dobbs in his role as Mississippi’s State Health Officer but understands his desire to return to the clinical side of medicine.

“I speak for all of us when I say that we have truly appreciated his professionalism, sterling personality, and stellar leadership throughout his tenure, but especially during COVID. He has been a wonderful asset to Mississippi,” said Waites.

Daniel P. Edney, MD, FACP, has been named Deputy State Health Officer. Edney is a long-time resident of Vicksburg, and a graduate of the University of Mississippi Medical School where he graduated summa cum laude and with other honors.

Edney is also a member of the American Medical Association and the Mississippi State Medical Association where he serves as Past President. He has served as Chief Medical Officer at MSDH for the past year and worked closely with Dobbs during COVID providing outreach and guidance to other physicians.

The Board will take up the issue of interim State Health Officer in one of its upcoming meetings.

bership has doubled.”

The historic WCA was the first club on the Mississippi Gulf Coast to begin hosting an annual St. Patrick’s Day parade.

“In 1963, a group of men who met in Villere’s on Coleman Avenue in Waveland, decided to have a St. Patrick’s parade,” Andres wrote in a brief history of the WCA. “They also decided to sell corned beef and cabbage — the proceeds from which would be given to the Boy Scouts. After the parade and sale of food, the street was blocked off for a street dance.

“In 1967, the Waveland Civic Association was formed and chartered. Also in 1967, the St. Patrick’s Ball was started.”

The first St. Patrick’s Day parade was held in 1964, Andres said. The first grand marshal was Joe Griffins; the first colleen, Terri Gandee.

behalf of PPCC asking if he wanted to work operating one of the company’s vehicles to spray pesticide for mosquito control.

The suit alleges that Moran drove John Doe to his home and handed him a sex toy to “play with,” and made suggestive comments and repeatedly touched the minor inappropriately while they were driving. It also alleges Moran offered to buy beer for the minor.

The suit is seeking relief for “assault/battery,” saying Moran’s actions were “intended to cause apprehension of harmful, offensive contact ... in disregard for John Doe’s wishes,” and that there was “intentional touching and application of force to the body of John Doe ... without his consent.”

The suit is also seeking relief for “false imprisonment,” alleging that Moran’s actions “caused the unlawful detention of John Doe,” because he was “physically detained” within the vehicle they were riding in.

The suit also seeks relief for “intentional infliction of emotional distress/negligent infliction of emotional distress.” According to the suit, through “extreme and outrageous conduct, Moran intentionally and recklessly caused severe emotional distress” to the family.

The suit additionally seeks relief for “negligence and negligence per se,” and “gross negligence,” saying the damages the family suffered arose from Moran’s “exercise of authority, power and access created by his position of trust and authority and employment as manager, officer, employee and/or agent for defendants PPCC and A&M. The suit claims PPCC and A&M “did not take proper precautions to protect the safety of the minor John Doe while on their premises and in their vehicles.”

The suit says the plaintiffs incurred damages “including, but not limited to,” pain and suffering; body injury; medical and hospital expenses; mental anguish and emotional distress. It does not name a dollar figure, but asks the court for exemplary damages, punitive damages, pre-judgment interest, post-judgment interest and attorney’s fees and expenses.

A lawsuit tells only the plaintiffs side of the story.

Attorney Donald Rafferty, representing Moran, said publicly that he is “looking forward” to telling Moran’s side of the story in court.

The criminal case has not yet been heard in Hancock Justice Court and remains unresolved.

Moran has not made a public statement about the incident since the arrest, and continues to serve as a member of the Diamondhead City Council.
